Subject: RE: Discovery response format

Please send the additional documents by disc and responses in hard copy. We would appreciate a courtesy copy of both by e-mail if the file size works for e-mailing. Please note the production format we have requested and let us know if you have any questions. One specific item is that attachments must be produced with the e-mail messages so that we can review them together.

Erik

We have the discovery responses ready to send out except for the verification which we hope to get signed today. We will send you hard copies of the responses and the additional documents to supplement the documents on the disc that was sent Monday. We also wanted confirmation of how you want us to get you the new information. We will send you hard copies of the responses as you requested. Do you also want us to send you the responses (and the additional documents) by e-mail so that you also have them electronically? Let me know.
